

The Legend of Ancient Rome

Key Points:

- King Numitor and his sons were killed by jealous Amulius
- Numitor's wife fell in love with Mars and had twin sons
- Amulius ordered the babies to be taken to the River Tiber
- The servant placed the babies in a basket
- The babies were found and cared for by a wolf
- A shepherd came across them and brought them up
- Amulius was killed and the boys were crowned joint kings
- They argued over where to build the city and fought
- Romulus survived and named his city after himself

